Source: Sparks Guiders Manual. Words and music by Jaen Wanamaker

I promise to share and be a friend,
By showing we care, it's love we send.
Tho' the world is so wide with love deep inside,
It's easy to be a friend, a friend.

Rise

40 Years on an Iceberg

Source: http://dragon.sleepdeprived.ca/songbook/songs2/s2_25.htm, Author Unknown.

Forty years on an iceberg
Over the ocean wide
Nothing to wear but pajamas,
Nothing to do but slide
The wind was cold and icy,
Jack Frost began to bite
I had to hug my polar bear
To keep me warm at night, night, night, night...
(Repeat and each time hum another line instead of singing it).

Actions:

Verse 1: make #10 with your hands four times.
Verse 2: make a wave motion with hands.
Verse 3: slide hands up body from toes to head.
Verse 4: slide hands down body from head to toes.
Verse 5: shiver, arms around body.
Verse 6: Make pinching motion in air.
Verse 7: Make hugging motion in air.

The World Song (WAGGGs Anthem, English Version)

Source: Songs for Canadian Girl Guides, 3rd ed. (1971). Lyrics written by Gavin Ewart.

Our way is clear as we march on,
And see our flag on high!
It's never furled,
Throughout the world,
For hope shall never die!

We must unite for what is right,
In friendship true and strong,
Until the earth,
In its rebirth,
Shall sing our song,
Shall sing our song.

All those who love the true and good,
Who's promises were kept,
With humble minds,
Whose acts were kind,
Whose honour never slept!

These were the free,
And we must be,
Prepared like them to live,
To give to all,
Both great and small,
All we can give.
All we can give.

The World Song (WAGGGs Anthem, French Version)

Source: Songs for Canadian Girl Guides, 3rd ed. (1971). French lyrics written by Francine Cockenpot.

Ensemble marchons vers l'avenir,
En chantant dans le soleil,
Nous promettons de toujours server,
En un monde fraternal,
Et nos voix unies par delà les mers,
S'élèvent de toute la terre,
Dans l'amour et la joie,
Nous suivons notre loi,
Pour être prêtes. Pour être prêtes.

Le trèfle d'or sur le Drapeau bleu,
Flotte au vent de tous les ciels,
Nous accourons d'un élan joyeux,
Où retentit son appel,
Formant de nos main pour le monde entire,
La chaîne de notre amitié,
Dans l'amour et la joie,
Nous suivons notre loi,
Pour être prêtes. Pour être prêtes.

Sing a Song of Canada

Source: Pax Lodge Songbook, page 75. Words and music by Dorothy Lind, British Columbia (1995).

Chorus:

Sing a song of Canada, Let your spirit show.
Send your voice across the land, and let the whole world know;
It's a land of endless beauty, of people proud and free, so
Sing a song of Canada, our home from sea to sea.

It's a song of rugged coasts and mountains tow'ring high;
Gentle hills and rolling prairies beneath the northern sky;
Woodlands, lakes and rivers, so much variety;
Mountains, plains, and sea-coast, blended all in harmony.

Sing Chorus

It's a song of friendly people who built this land with pride;
Many races, creeds and colours, all working side by side;
Farms and towns and cities, so much diversity;
A cultural mosaic, blended all in harmony.

Tree Song

Source: Jubilee Song Book, page 25.

Once upon a time
There was a tree
The prettiest tree
That you ever did see!

Chorus:

And the tree was in the ground
And the green grass grew all around, all around,
And the green grass grew all around!

Now on that tree
There was a branch
Just the prettiest little branch
That you ever did see!

Chorus:

And the branch was on the tree
And the tree was in the ground
And the green grass grew all around, all around
And the green grass grew all around!
...add on twig, nest, egg, bird, wing, feather, flea, elephant!

Actions:

Ground: move both arms out from the body horizontally (i.e. as a movie director would when saying "cut!")

Tree: two hands trace parallel lines starting at the level of your head and heading downwards

Branch: hold one arm out as a branch

Twig: hold up your pinkie finger

Nest: cup your hands

Egg: make a fist

Bird: one hand pointed forward at your face as a beak, the other sticking out behind as a tail

Wing: flap one arm

Feather: trace the path a feather would take as it falls through the air

Flea: indicate something really small

Elephant: trace the outline of something really big!

Guiding March Song

Source: Songs for Canadian Girl Guides, 6th ed., 1981. Music and words by Mary Chater.

Chorus:

They are Guides, all Guides
And in unexpected places
You'll meet their friendly faces
And a ready hand besides
And there's not much danger
Of finding you're a stranger
For Commissioner or Ranger
They are Guides, all Guides

Who are these? Swinging along the road,
With a pack on the back, a song in the heart, to ease the load?
It is eighty years or more since they crowded through the door,
And they're coming along as gay and strong as ever they came before

Who are these? Living beneath the sky
While the simmering sun, the pattering rain, the clouds pass by
They will dine beneath the boughs and their leader always vows
That they're never afraid of wasps and hardly ever afraid of cows

Who are these? Sitting around the fire
They'll be happy to have your company if that is your desire
And the evening will be gay at the sunset of the day
With a song to sing and a tale to tell and many a tune to play

Who are these leaving the beaten track,
They are climbing high to the open sky and they won't turn back
You may join them where you will for the gate is open still
And the Guides of today can find their way to the path across the hill

Final Chorus:

They are Guides all Guides
At this moment you will find them
With eighty years behind them

And a steady heart besides
For in need or danger
They're friends with every stranger
And as Brownie, Guide and Ranger
They are Guides - all Guides!

Yes She Can!

Source: Still Singing 25. Words by Iris Hirsch (1990).

To the tune of “She’ll be Comin’ Round the Mountain”

Can a woman fly an airplane? Yes, she can. YES! She CAN!

Can a woman build a building? Yes, she can. YES! She CAN!

Can a woman fight a fire? Can a woman change a tire?

Can a woman lead a choir? Yes, she can. YES! She CAN!

Can a woman be a lawyer? Yes, she can. YES! She CAN!

Can a woman fix an engine? Yes, she can. YES! She CAN!

Can a woman be a drummer? Can a woman be a plumber?

Can she play ball in the summer? Yes, she can. YES! She CAN!

Can a woman be a doctor? Yes, she can. YES! She CAN!

Can a woman drive a tractor? Yes, she can. YES! She CAN!

Can a woman lead a nation? Yes, she can. YES! She CAN!

Can she head a corporation? Yes, she can. YES! She CAN!

Just you wait until you’re older, then you’ll see

We’ll be women in tomorrow’s history!

As we grow up through the years, We’ll sing out loud and clear

Can we start the process here? Yes, she can. YES! She CAN!

Calm Down

Barges

Source: Jubilee Songbook, page 56.

Sing this song slowly because barges are slow moving vessels.

Out of my window looking in the night,
I can see the barges' flickering light.
Silently flows the river to the sea,
And the barges too go silently.

Chorus:

Barges, I would like to go with you;
I would like to sail the ocean blue.
Barges, have you treasures in your hold?
Do you fight pirates brave and bold?

Out of my window looking in the night,
I can see the barges' flickering light.
Starboard shines green and port is glowing red
You can see them flickering far ahead.

Sing Chorus

Remember Me

Source: Dana Vranic, written for the 40th Anniversary of Doe Lake.

Come and take my hand
See the horizon in the open air, see the treetops way up there,
Because we talk the way we do,
I know I've found a friend,
Oh I will remember you.

When the summer's gone, we'll have to move on
But we'll smile again, as we listen to the rain,
Tell ev'rything you want to,
All your whole life through,
Just promise you'll remember me.

Singing to a guitar,
At Doe Lake campfire,
I think it's nice to know that so many years ago,
There were people here like you and me,
Gazing at the stars,
Saying promise you'll remember me.

As we watch the days come and go,
I feel that you know all the things we've shared,
We'll remember way out there,
As we travel far and back again,
And touch the open sky,
Remember me, my friend

Ending

Say Why

Source: Campfire Activities, page 128.

Say why, do we have to say good-bye. (3x)

Say why, my friend, say why.

Say when, will we ever meet again...

Say where, and I'll meet you right there...

Say why, do we have to say good-bye.

Say when, will we ever meet again.

Say where, and I'll meet you right there.

Say why, say when, say where.
